“We thought everything out, not just to make it pretty but also to make it functional, so that everything has its place”

Left: With its pale blue walls, glistening Carrara-marble tile floor laid in a petite diamond pattern, and gleaming chandelier, the master bath is undeniably elegant. In addition to a soaking tub tucked into a window nook, amenities include a zinc fireplace, an expansive glass-walled steam shower and a towel warmer. His and her walk-in closets with islands complete the suite.

Above: Replete with a linen-upholstered wing bed, a fireplace set into an arched niche, and hardwood floors, the master bedroom is an inviting respite. The family dog, who claims the metal daybed for naps, agrees.

Right: The look turns casual in the kids' lounge, where milk-can table lamps and a rope pendant provide light and personality.
